

Please join Virginia Clean Cities for a stakeholder meeting and electric vehicle ride-n-drive opportunity hosted by Virginia Commonwealth University, where level 2 charging stations have recently been installed.

You will learn about what the Commonwealth and the nation are doing to prepare for electric vehicles, what vehicle electrification means for your organization, and what you can do to get involved.

What:

Virginia Clean Cities Stakeholder Meeting

Where:

Virginia Commonwealth University
Student Common's, 907 Floyd Avenue
Richmond, Virginia 23220
Event held in Salons 1 & 2 (second floor)

When:

12 pm - 2 pm
Wednesday, June 8, 2011

Details:

Lunch to be served
Electric vehicle ride-n-drive to follow

Speakers:

Cathie France
DMME, Deputy Director of Energy Policy

Scott Mullins
Eaton Corporation, Senior Sales Engineer

Jacek Ghosh
VCU, Director of Sustainability

Chelsea Jenkins
Virginia Clean Cities, Executive Director

Parking:

Parking deck entrances located at
W. Main & N. Cherry or at N. Laurel &
W. Main Streets, Parking is $5

For directions & to register visit:
www.vacleancities.org/stakeholders

Stakeholder Meeting